George Washington Chapter in April "65th Anniversary"

The George Washington Chapter celebrated its 65th year on April 13, 2019 at the Mount Vernon Country Club in Alexandria, with over 70 compatriots and guests in attendance. The chapter was chartered on April 2, 1954 with 14 charter members. Today, the chapter has over 250 members and continues to grow.

Compatriots:

April was a very busy month for the Chapter to include the George Washington Chapter's 65th Anniversary celebration, laying a wreath at James Monroe's 261st Birthday Celebration Ceremony, a Law Enforcement Commendation Ceremony and recognizing two Security Access Control Officers who rendered timely assistance to a compatriot's wife and were recognized with the Outstanding Citizenship Award. Yep, we had a very busy month, so let's get to the details.

GW Chapter 65th Anniversary

At the April 13th Chapter meeting we celebrated the 65th Anniversary of the George Washington Chapter representing the founding and chartering of the Chapter joining the Virginia Society on April 2, 1954. We were honored to have 81 Chapter members, SAR and DAR dignitaries and honored guests who joined us in the celebration at Mt. Vernon Country Club.

In addition, other notable DAR and SAR dignitaries included DAR Freedom Hill Chapter, Regent, Beth Boswell; DAR John

Alexander Chapter, Regent, Sarah Henze; DAR Mount Vernon Chapter, Regent, Katy Kane; NSSAR, C.A.R.-SAR Relations Committee Chairman, Darrin Schmidt; Col. William Grayson Chapter President, Mike Weyler; and Fairfax Resolves Chapter, Past-President, Ken Bonner. Guests of honor included Fairfax County Police, Master Police Officer, Kevin Webb; JROTC Cadet, 1st Lt. Tyler Herod, and the beloved Julia Carr, wife of Bob Carr, Past-President of the GW Chapter who passed last year. In total we had over 30 guests in attendance to be part of our Anniversary celebration.

Notable George Washington Chapter Leaders included Past-VASSAR President & GW Chapter Past President's, Larry Lisle (1996-1997 / 1986) and Don Reynolds (2000-2001 / 1994); and GW Chapter Past-President's Ernie Coggins (2018), Paul Walden (2017), Dwight Whitney (2015) and David Walker (2009). These Chapter Leaders, as well for those who couldn't attend, represented the Chapter during their respective tenures with distinction, dedicating themselves to the goals and objectives of the Chapter, and for some, performing as VASSAR President's and, for a few, performing to the goals and objectives of positions at the National Society level. Please take a moment to reflect and recognize these compatriots for their outstanding service to the George Washington Chapter, the Virginia Society and for a few to the National Society. Thank you to all.

The Chapter meeting had a true feel of celebration, given the mix of attendees, and a festive 65th Anniversary program to include dignitary greetings, 3 lively Champaign toasts, having a 65th Anniversary cake, distributing anniversary coffee mugs and the playing of Happy Birthday by fifer Don Francisco. A good time was had by all.

As a note, the anniversary celebration wouldn't have been possible without the visionary, dedication and outstanding efforts of Chapter Vice President, Jay Henn; Treasurer, Tom Roth; and DAR members Bonnie Henn and Claire Bennett. They performed a magnificent job and I thank them for their hard work and efforts.

James Monroe's 261st Birthday Celebration Ceremony

On April 20th, the James Monroe Memorial Foundation held its annual commemoration of James Monroe's birthday at his recently reconstructed birthplace in Colonial Beach, Virginia. In honor to James Monroe, twelve VASSAR Chapters presented wreaths: Richmond, George Mason, Col. William Grayson, James Monroe, Richard Henry Lee, Fairfax Resolves, George Washington, Rappahannock, Williamsburg, Thomas Nelson, Jr., Culpeper Minutemen, and Col. Fielding Lewis. Chapter President, Dave Thomas presented a wreath on behalf of the George Washington Chapter. Mr. G. William Thomas, Jr., President of the James Monroe Memorial Foundation served as Master of Ceremonies, with VA State Delegate, Margaret Ransone and Hon. Woody Hynson, Westmoreland County Board of Supervisors offering their greetings. Peter Davenport, VASSAR President, was the keynote speaker and discussed James Monroe's contribution to history.

Outstanding Citizenship Award

On February 10, early on a very frigid morning, Montebello Condominium resident Denise Bean (wife of GW Chapter compatriot Lisle Bean) misjudged the height of a high curb and fell outside of their building, suffering a tibia plateau fracture. Montebello Security Access Control (SAC) Officers SGT Robert Fischer and Officer Samford Kwarteng came to her aid and stayed with her until Fairfax County Fire and Rescue arrived. Because of their extraordinary efforts, Paul Walden, Board of Managers, and Montebello resident, presented them with the Outstanding Citizenship Award on April 23 at the Montebello Community Center.

Law Enforcement Commendation

On April 11th, compatriot John Blair of the Public Safety Awards Committee presented three Fairfax County Police Officers – PFC Kelvin Catron, MPO Joseph Wallace and PFC Matthew Dobson with Law Enforcement Commendation awards for their service in protecting the Mt. Vernon community. Description of the morning events of September 8, 2018 follows.

"On September 8, 2018, just before 11 a.m., Mount Vernon patrol officer responded to a 9-1-1 stating that a man came into her apartment and fired a handgun three times. PFC Kelvin Catron arrived on scene just as the subject exited the apartment, noticed the subject was still holding the weapon in his right hand and challenged the subject to stop and drop his weapon. The subject refused to drop the weapon. PFC Catron, while holding the subject at gunpoint radioed to responding officers to coordinate their arrival without creating a crossfire situation. MPO Joseph Wallace was the second officer on scene and took cover while attempting to negotiate with the subject. PFC Matthew Dobson arrived on scene and escorted other residents out of the apartment building. The subject eventually surrendered after MPO Wallace was successful using his negotiating skills and was transported to INOVA Mount Vernon Hospital due to his unusual mental behavior. The actions of all these officers led to a quick response and stabilization of the scene. Their cooperation and coordination ensured a peaceful resolution for everyone around as well as the safe apprehension of the subject without incident."

Next up is the last Chapter meeting before the summer break on May 11th, and the National Memorial Day Parade on May 27th. For those compatriots who have interest in marching in the parade, please submit your necessary Agreement of Release forms to Mike Elston soonest.

Thank you,
Dave Thomas

May Speaker

In honor of May--the month of Mother's Day--we are delighted to present as our featured Chapter meeting speaker Mr. Andrew Och, better known as "The First Ladies Man."

Mr. Och is an Award Winning television producer who has traveled the world in search of provocative stories and adventures. In 2012, he began an historical journey as he traversed America for over a year documenting the lives of every First Lady of the United States up to that point in time for the C-SPAN series First Ladies: Influence and Image. The series aired in 2013 to great acclaim and helped reveal the untold stories behind the ladies of the White House.

From Martha Washington to Michelle Obama, Mr. Och was given an all-access pass to some of the nation's most treasured collections and historical landmarks. In his presentations--based on the largest complete collection of video and interviews about America's First Ladies that exists in the world--Andrew pulls back the curtain on the public and private lives of this unique sorority of women.

Join us at the May meeting and find out more about what type of woman grows up to be married to a President of the United States. Autographed copies of his two-volume work "Unusual for Their Time: On the Road with America's First Ladies" will be available following the meeting.

Revolutionary War Patriots of the George Washington Chapter

During 2019 the Chapter is placing more focus on honoring Revolutionary War patriots, and there's no better way to honor these men than to read the Patriot Biographies submitted by Chapter Members. Take a moment to read the Patriot Biographies of Private William Line, Private Isaac Ball Jr, and Captain Aaron Aorson, thus honoring their memories and service. If you wish to read more Patriot Biographies, they can be found on the George Washington Chapter website: www.gwsar.org -- under Honoring/Patriot Biographies.

Private William Line (1716-1779) was born in Scotch Plains, New Jersey, in 1716 or 1717. He saw service in the French and Indian War. During the Revolution, he served in Captain Benjamin Laing's Company, 1st Essex County Regiment, New Jersey Militia. His daughter, Neaty Line, married patriot David Elston. He died on 10 March 1779 and is buried in the Scotch Plains Baptist Cemetery.

Private Isaac Ball Jr (1747-aft. 1790) was born on 31 Dec 1747 in Brookfield, Massachusetts to Isaac Ball (1710-1789) and his wife Rachel Howe (1710-1779). He served during the Revolution as a Private in Captain Ichabod Dexter's company, Colonel Doolittle's regiment of the Massachusetts Militia, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775. He enlisted April 24, 1775 and served in Captain Dexter's company, Colonel Woodbridge's regiment - muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775. Private Ball married Hannah Comins (Comings) on 3 May 1778 in Athol, Massachusetts and he died there about 1790.

Captain Aaron Aorson (1740-?) was appointed a 1st Lieutenant in June 1775 in the 5th company of the 1st New York Continental Line Regiment. He served as a 1st Lieutenant during the 1775 invasion of Canada and at the siege of Quebec City, he took command of the 5th company on December 31, 1775, after Captain Cheesman and Colonel Montgomery were killed in the assault on Quebec City. In November 1776, he was appointed Captain of the 5th company, 3rd New York Regiment, under Colonel Gansevoort in November, 1776 and served as a company commander at Fort Schuyler, New York, in 1777 during the siege by British and Native American forces. Aorson served as a company commander with the New York Continental Line during Colonel Sullivan's 1779 expedition and campaign against the Six Nations in New York. He also served at Morristown, New Jersey in 1780. Aorson was reassigned to the 1st New York Regiment in 1781 and served as the brigade major in General James Clinton's brigade at Yorktown. Aaron Aorson's final assignments were as a member of a detachment from headquarters at Newburgh, New York in March, 1783 and at New Windsor, New York in May, 1783.
